

Restricted Use of Instrument Flight

20161031-AIR-REC0002 Air Rescue Commission Recommendation

ICAR emphasizes and wishes to push in developing a special helicopter regulation for the need of flight rescue, to fit with the national air traffic regulations.

This regulation must allow the restricted use of instrument flight for breaking through a compact cloud layer, whether climbing or descending and this with simplified procedures and methods.

History of Revisions
issued	1991
revised	2009
revised	2016

