Dear Mr Biner,

Procurement authorities are obliged to follow strict procedures such as public calls and choices among several bidders, yet the defence market is deeply fragmented and the choice of suppliers limited. Receive latest insights of the security & defence procurement legislation and set up successful strategies & processes that meet the needs of your organisation.

European Seminar
Defence and Security Procurement

4th - 5th March 2019, Berlin – Germany

Event Brochure

Further Details

Regulatory Framework – Collaborative Procurement – Article 346 TFEU
Main topics:

- Different procurement regimes – Directive 2009/81 vs. the newer Directive 2014/24
- Identifying and tackling corruption in defence procurement
- Horizon2020: Pre-commercial procurement and public procurement of innovation
- Joint procurement: Improving collaboration
- Life cycle costing in defence acquisition

With experts from:

- Ministry of National Defence, Greece
- University of Nottingham, United Kingdom
- Centre for Integrity in the Defence Sector (CIDS)

Highlights:

- Workshop: Applying the Legal Framework in Practice
- Workshop: Applying Article 346 TFEU in Practice

For further procurement seminars have a look at our catalogue:

Selected Events 2019

Yours sincerely,

Dipl.-Jur. Christoph Brauner
Managing Director