

Human External Cargo (HEC) Safety Check

20161031-AIR-REC0011 Air Rescue Commission Recommendation

A safety check should be performed prior to the extraction of HEC. The aim of the safety check is to prevent entanglement by ensuring that the rigging and equipment has been checked and that the load is clear of obstructions. Once the pilot is satisfied that the check is complete, he is clear to depart the scene.

History of Revisions
issued	2003
revised	2009
revised	2016

