

Norwegian Alpine Rescue

Systematic safety/quality work - Cooperation with helicopter operators

13.5 persons pr. Sq. Km
100 915 km total coastline

More «outdoor-activity»

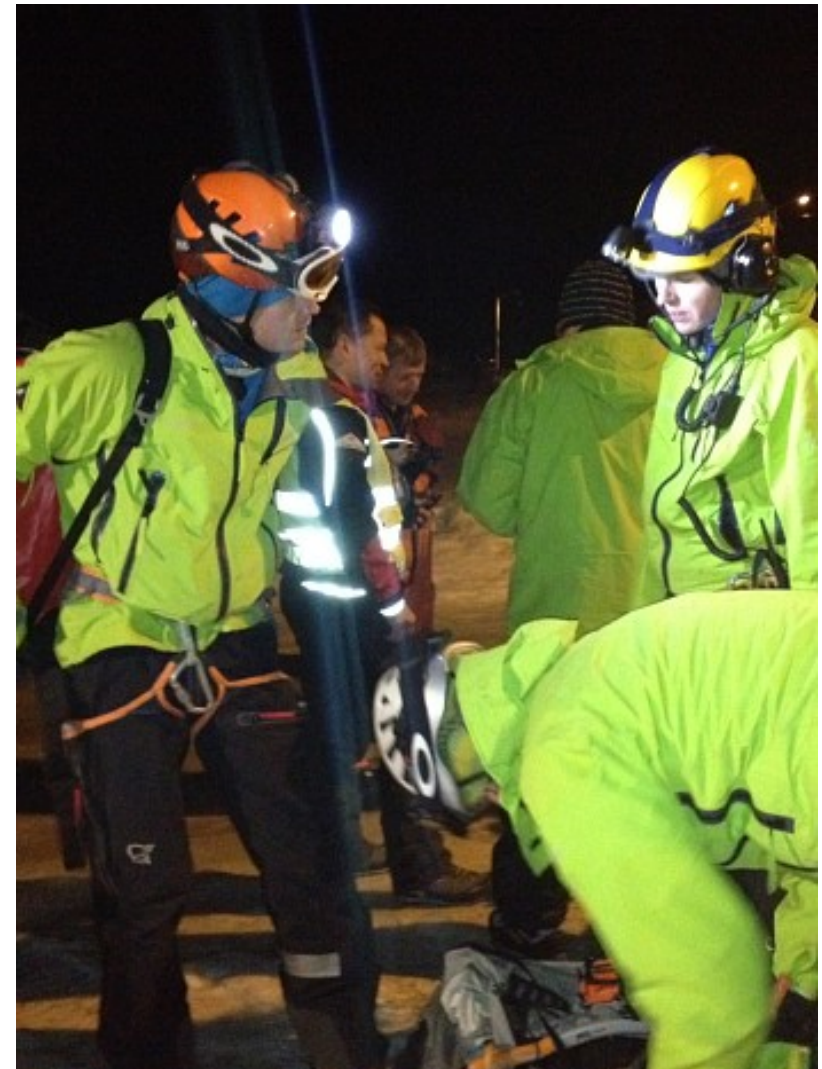

- Increasing number of Tourists
- Increasing number of people doing «extreme-sports»

Norwegian Alpine Rescue Groups «NARG»

- 10 Regional teams
 - 250 volunteers
- National procedure book
 - Procedure committee
 - Revised every year
- Standardized Equipment

Quality –management:

- For operational safety
- Compliance with regulations
- Educated Controller of Equipment/Harnesses (PPE)
- Periodic inspection of rescue equipment every 12 month

Two Joint Rescue Coordination Centers (South and North)

- Coordinates all rescue
- UMS cellphone alarm to the actual Alpine Rescue team

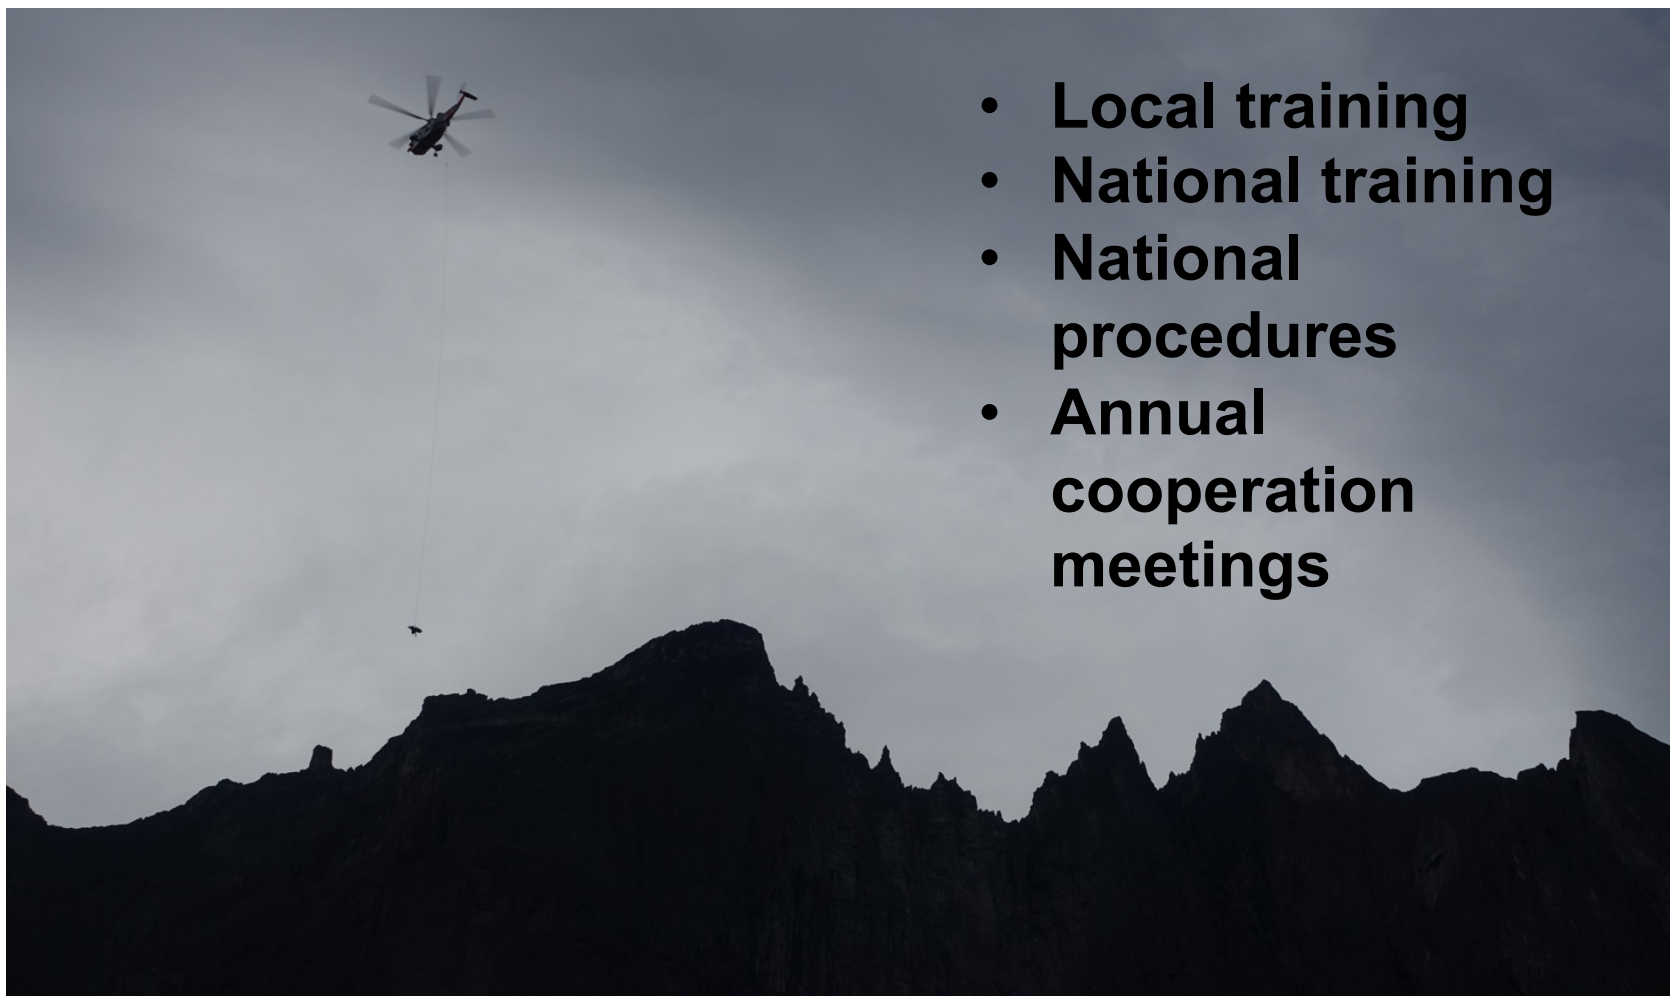

Westland Sea King

Operated by the Royal Air Force 330 squadron.

- 6 Bases – 4 in South, 2 in North
- Main Helicopter resource for mountain rescue

- Local training
- National training
- National procedures
- Annual cooperation meetings

HEMS in Norway

- National Air Ambulance Services
- Government contracts with operators
- All missions have to follow civil regulations

13 bases (2016)

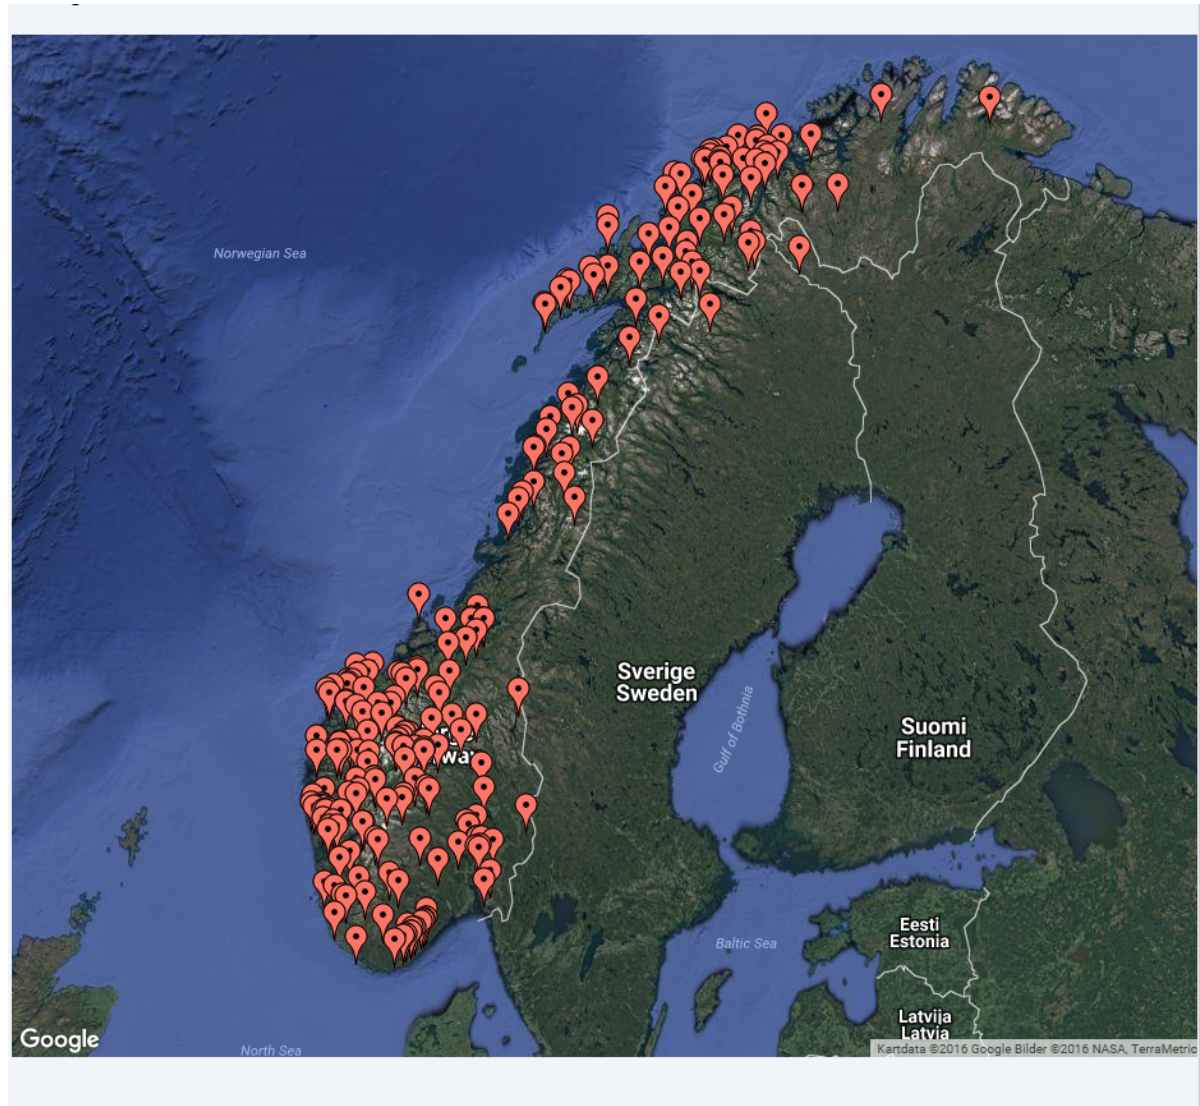

- EC 135
- H145 T2
- Agusta139

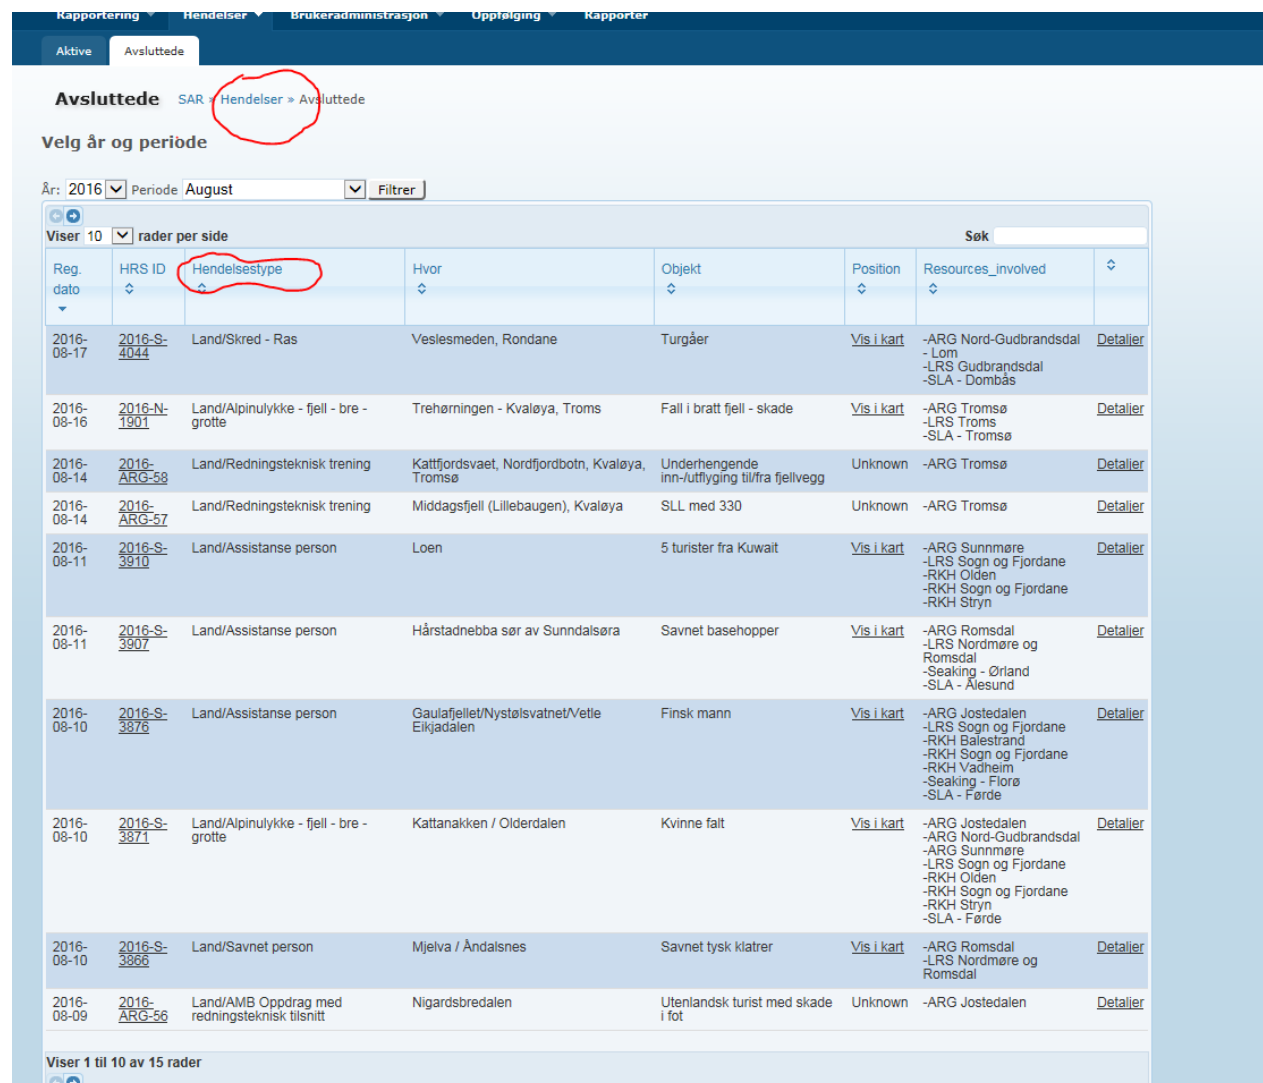

Interface helicopter /alpine rescue team

National mission report system

Annual meeting and national training weekend

- 330 Squadron
- Joint Rescue Coordination Centers
- Norwegian Air ambulance services
- Norwegian Alpine Rescue Groups (NARG)

Thank you!

