An aerial photograph showing a large gathering of media vehicles, primarily white vans equipped with satellite dishes on their roofs, parked in a grassy field. A large wooden barn is visible on the left side of the frame. Numerous people are scattered throughout the field, some standing near the vehicles and others in small groups. In the background, there are rolling hills, a small village with a church, and a road. The text "AN IMPRESSIVE MEDIA PRESENCE" is overlaid in the upper right quadrant of the image.
